Opportunity Quilt

Vickie Brownell has volunteered to chair the 2022 Opportunity Quilt project. Debbie Cone is assisting with QOV State Director, Ann Mixon orchestrated the deliberate coverage of the SC State House steps and grounds. What a wondrous event. Region 8 QOV held a display and presentations at the SC State Capitol building on Saturday, May 23. The 350 quilts were spread across the steps and lawn of the Capitol. Presentation of 135 quilts were awarded.

There are QOV quilt kits available for anyone interested in helping. Contact Lauri Winburn. Thanks to all that have helped piece, quilt, or bound a QOV quilt to bless our veterans.

Heads up to those wanting to get started with next years Quilt Challenge. Jonnie Britton and Beth Twedell will be the chair persons. They will give more information at the August meeting. I hear it will be, "Anything Goes" Our Hartsville Museum is rather limited on space for display purposes. There are more permanent displays that can't be covered. Andrea Steel has requested a size requirement will be necessary for future shows. The beautiful large quilts will not be able to be displayed. She will be sending an official request. Thanks you for your understanding.

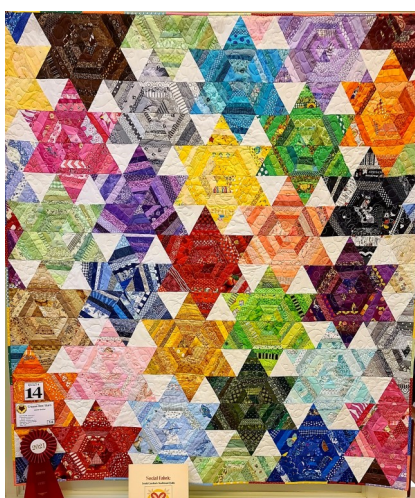

Twenty One Challenge Quilts "Diamonds Are Forever" are at the Hartsville Museum on display. If you haven't been able to see the quilt display, please try to make your way to the Hartsville Museum. Every quilt was beautiful and deserve an award. Thanks to all that took the time to create an entry.
